BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that the Post master general, Madras, informs that the duty of executing lease of post office buildings has been transferred to the Deputy Post Master general and suggests that if there be no objection, steps may be taken to make the necessary amendments in Sec 88 of the Regulation.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1. The words "Post Master general" were inserted by Regulation 8 of 1854. (Vide linked file), the words have been introduced into the Registration Regulation I of 1903 also. Deputy Post Master general stands in the same position as the Post Master general and as

2. The exemption created by Regulation section 88 of the Registration Regulation is in favour of the Post Master General ~~of~~ of Madras in respect of documents executed by him in his official capacity. If this is to be extended to the Deputy Post Master General also, it should be by an amendment of sec 88, ~~and all the~~ and not by the issue of a circular as suggested in the notes above. The Post Master General of Madras does not appear to have been exempted from appearance ~~in British India before~~ in registration offices in British India As he has however been already exempted here, the exemption may, it seems, be extended to the Deputy Post Master General also, by adding the words "or the Deputy Post master General" after "Post Master General" in para 1 of section 88, and ~~adding~~ omitting "or" after "Registrar" and adding "or Deputy Post Master General" after "Post Master General" in para 2.

As this is a measure affecting the Post Office, it seems unnecessary to place it before the Legislative Council.

10. The accompanying draft of a Regulation to amend the Mysore Registration Regulation so as to extend to the Deputy Postmaster General the exemption now enjoyed by the Postmaster General from personal appearance before a Registration Officer, may be sanctioned.

The exemption was first allowed to the Postmaster General to obviate the necessity of his having to appear before Registration officers in connection with the lease of private buildings for the Postal Department. The duty of executing leases having now been transferred to the Deputy Postmaster General, the Residency has requested that the necessary amendment may be made in the Registration Regulation.

12. The draft Regulation if approved will be placed before the Legislative Council.
